

Bridge of Truth

Whether or not to send Nick . . . Do send him the section about how I met Paul. Let him see that and evaluate that. Ask him to get back to you on his assessment.

Let him see what I say about my name. Let him see that, for I am going to reclaim my teachings. And he is going to help me do it. He and his friends and supporters are going to help me do this. As he helped me distribute my teachings 2000 years ago, he will help me clear up my message now.

This is necessary. For we must have a bridge. We must have a bridge.

Nick has volunteered – how did I put it? – Evolve not dissolve the church. Evolve not dissolve. And Nick and those who follow him will make that come about. But there must be a bridge between what was, what evolved from my core teachings that he helped distribute to the world, what evolved from that once humanity got ahold of it, once humanity distorted, and then the distortions were distorted, and the distorted distortions were yet distorted again. All to serve individual needs.

So we must go back, back to the farthest reaches of recorded history, back to the farthest reaches of those who thru regression or any other means actually remember and can remember, are capable of remembering what it is I actually said and what, in context, I did mean. And the wisdom I brought thru and that was the wisdom of the time, and those times have changed.

However, the core message can now be understood by many more, yes more than were capable of understanding the mysticism of the core message. And that can happen now. And that can happen with Nick, with Nick's help and the help of his supporters. And that bridge can be built. The bridge. This is almost a retro-active bridge. But the bridge must be built from what the distortions on the distortions have created, a bridge to the original teachings, so that the church can evolve and an evolving church body, and by that I mean the people, an evolving church body can, for humanity, reach the point where they will be able to connect to the new civilization that will be coming—the new civilization that I am working with thru others, activating those who are ready to be activated at that level.

But they cannot do it alone and they must have people to lead. And they must have people who will be ready to follow and their message will be heard. But in order to make that happen, in order to make that happen at the scale of the entire of humanity, I wish to have what I will call a bridge of truth, a bridge of truth between my core message 2000 years ago, which in its essence goes back even farther to the core message and the core messages that grew with humanity. I will not worry about that at the moment. The first segment of that bridge is from my message of 2000 years ago to what remains today, so that the distortions can be cleared, the message be freed, the people enlightened about the true message. And from there, those who are ready will each move forward on their own path. But that bridge must be built and the messages must be cleared.

I know of no one better suited to do this than Saul-Paul-Nick. And I am counting on that. And I am going to help him every way possible. Go ahead say it. You are fighting it. Even you are one of these ways. Do not fight me on this, Sharon.

This will happen. This will happen. And those bridges will be built. And the church that was envisioned, the loving, compassionate, inclusive church that was envisioned will be freed. Will be freed to evolve into humanity's future. But before it can evolve into humanity's future, it must be, for lack of a better word, cleansed. And I do not mean that in the nature of ethnic cleansing. It must be freed from the lack of truth is another way to put it. And to go back to the title of the book, it is time for the truth. But the church, the church in the name of the people and for the people must change, must evolve.

The shadows of distortions that darken and hide and obliterate the original truths must be removed. I can come up with any number of other analogies. But Nick will know exactly what I am talking about and in your heart, Sharon, you know exactly what I am talking about. Nick and his followers know. And for Nick it is a soul-deep, painful knowledge and a commitment that he has taken on. It is a commitment that we will, together, move forward. But that is my objective: to shine the light of God's creative sun on all these distortions, chase the shadows, re-evaluate – resurrect the original truths that people may understand and evolve into their own human paths from the true core rather than the distortions.

I am very pleased that Nick is both generous and patient with you. Send him this message. He will understand in his heart. He will understand with his entire being what I mean. It is as important and dear to him as it is to me and we will work together in many ways. You are only one of them. I wish he were here now so we could talk, but he is not. He is not.

It is not an easy task that he has undertaken. (chuckling) Clearly. I don't think anyone thinks this is going to be an easy task. But then what he undertook 2000 years ago was not an easy task either.

That would be the end of the message that I would have you convey to Nick with the other two segments.

Now, I will turn from that – and it is difficult to turn from that because it means a very great deal to me. And we must move on to other things.
